POLITICAL.

The Virginia constitutional convention has adjourned until Aug. 22.

It is said that Sapp will retain the office of collector but he must resign as chairman of the republican committee.

It is very likely that Madison county republicans will not nominate a candidate for representative. Just as well not.

THE HUSTONVILLE FAIR.

SPLENDID EXHIBITION AND AN ENJOYABLE EVENT.

Another Hustonville fair is a memory and a very pleasant memory it is. The exhibition ended in a blaze of glory Friday afternoon and all that is now to be done is to straighten up the matters and then declare a dividend. While there have been larger crowds in the history of the association, surely there never were better behaved or better disposed ones than attended each of the three days. Splendid order was preserved throughout and if anything was said or done that would have hurt the feelings of even a child, we are not cognizant of it. It was a good humored, happily disposed gathering, where thought of business cares and troubles were set aside for the nonce. The show of stock was very fine and the management of the fair was perfect. President Gill Cowan, his vice-presidents and directors, Secretary W. D. Hocker, his assistants and Treasurer J. H. Hocker worked in season and out to make the fair a success and make all feel that it was good to be there and we congratulate them on their achievement. As stated before, beautiful women and gallant beaux were there from many sections of the State and the fair was as much of a success socially as it was otherwise. We are sorry the fair is over because we didn't get enough of it and the thought of waiting a long year for another, worries us. The following are the awards for Friday, the last day:

Her friends were glad to see Mrs. W. C. McAttee at the fair. Pittsburg, Pa., seems to agree with her, as she is even handsomer than she used to be.

George Goode, wife and handsome children, of Covington, took in the fair each day. George loves Hustonville as well as he did when he lived there.

The fancy turnout ring was a beauty indeed. In it were J. T. Crenshaw, with Miss Jessie Cook, who got the premium; J. C. Bailey and wife, who got second money; T. P. Bruce with Miss Jessie Powell; Len Shannon and lady and Rufus Lipps and Howard Camnitz. The judges were: Misses Agnes Andrews, of Seymour, Ind., Pearl Pelton, of Somerset, and Mrs. F. F. Sandidge.

In the absence of the young, gifted correspondent, Miss Leona Hobbs, I promised to send a few lines from this section.

If people would offer thanks after they get a rain, their prayers for one would likely be heard more readily. We are prone to forget favors.

Major R. Kinnaird is a candidate for re-election to the office of mayor of our city. He has made an excellent officer and will defeat any man who opposes him.

Circuit court begins on the 19th and it promises to be a tame affair. Blackberries and new corn, though scarce, may prevent the legal lights from going out.

A. H. Bestin has contracted to place a number of telephones in the Buckeye and Paint Lick sections. Our citizens wonder how they ever got along without them.

Miss Eliza Lusk is presiding over the teachers' institute with prospects for a full and profitable session. She is an excellent superintendent and always has the good of the school in view.

Capt. Louis Landram has returned from the press convention at Madisonville. He very wisely preferred the work on his excellent paper to the long and tiresome trip through the West.

Squire Myers, who has the supervision of the turnpikes in this district, is having plenty of metal put on them and they will soon be ready for the winter. He is an excellent supervisor.

On Saturday, while O. G. Speake was threshing wheat at H. C. Arnold's the straw caught fire and the separator burned. It was worth about $500 with no insurance. Mr. Arnold lost 300 bushels of wheat by the fire.

Keller & Alverson's daily issues of the INTERIOR JOURNAL were highly praise-worthy. Why not make a spike team by adding Ed Walton, with an occasional pull by the old wheel horse, W. P. Walton, and give us a few more dailies?

Drs. Kinnaird, Acton, Wesley, Herring, Grant, Burnett and Sandlin attended the Garrard County Medical Society meeting at Paint Lick Friday evening. They had a profitable meeting and are loud in their praises of the Paint Lick people.

It has been said that the republicans will soon name a lamb to be sacrificed in the State Senatorial race. If they don't lookout they will offer a goat, the blood of which is not efficacious. No difference who enters the race, for Senator Harris and his friends have arranged for his election.

Miss Katherine Walters is recovering after an attack of fever. Mrs. C. W. Frisbie, of St. Louis, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Miller. Mr. James Burdett, of Chicago, is with Mr. J. Paul Miller. Mr. John Norris visited his parents at Frankfort. Mrs. Ozzie Huffman has returned to Louisville. Miss Lettie May McRoberts has returned from Hopkinsville.

Mrs. David Thompson, an estimable lady, age 54 years, died on Thursday night. Funeral services were conducted by Eld. A. R. Moore at the residence on Friday afternoon, and many friends and relatives followed the remains to Lancaster cemetery. She was a member of the Christian church, a devoted wife and mother. Her husband and two sons, Robert and Booth, survive her.

The floaters are in evidence and they are more annoying than the locusts were, and they can destroy a man's crops as quickly as locusts do. Each candidate is busy proving that he is the best man, but the democrats have the best proof. The truth is the entire democratic ticket will be elected. They are all competent, successful business men and they are letting no grass grow under their feet. There is no reason why they should not win, and there are some who are willing to wager hard cash on the election of each democratic candidate, from constable to coroner and representative.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. Godfrey Hancock, pastor of West Ashbury Park, N. J., M. E. church was stricken with paralysis while preaching and fell into his son's arms. He died in the afternoon.

The late christian endeavor convention held in Cincinnati was a frost from the viewpoint of the railroads. Arrangements had been made to accommodate 50,000 and the joint ticket agent reports that not more than 3,000 attended.

State College of Kentucky.

The Agricultural and Mechanical (State College) College of Kentucky offers the following courses of study, viz: Agricultural, Horticultural, Chemical, Biological, Mathematical, Normal School, Classical, Mechanical Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Civil Engineering, each of which extends over four years and leads to a degree. Post-graduate courses of study are also provided, leading each to a master's degree. Each course of study is organized under a separate faculty. The general faculty numbers more than thirty professors and instructors.

COUNTY APPOINTEES receive tuition, room rent in dormitory, fuel and lights, and if they remain ten months, traveling expenses. The laboratories and museums are large, well equipped, comprehensive and modern.

The last Legislature appropriated $30,000 for a college home for young women and a drill hall and gymnasium has been provided for men. Military tactics and science are fully provided for, as required by Congress.

Graduates from the several courses of study readily find excellent positions and liberal remuneration. The demand is largely in excess of the ability of the college to supply.

Last year the matriculation list was 620.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

E. C. WALTON.

REPUBLICAN NOMINEES.

The deed is done—done slickly, well done for those who like the sort of thing that was done and the manner of the doing it. Our republican friends—the U. S. gaugers, postmasters and a coterie of their allies—on last Saturday placed in nomination for five county offices the elect of their party, and instructed for a candidate for State Senator to oppose Hon. G. T. Farris. The proceedings smacked loudly of Sappism, but we pass that by as no concern of ours. If the republicans want to submit to the dictation of a few bosses and ring-masters, be it so. It is not our funeral. We are not even an honorary pall bearer. The INTERIOR JOURNAL, being a democrat of the straightest sect, which has never scratched a ticket nor swapped a boss while crossing the spring branch, and by these tokens known for its fair dealing with all parties, will give to the republican nominees the like consideration it has given our own party candidates. It has heretofore published slight sketches of the democratic nominees, and as far as we are enabled to gather information out of the "Biographical Sketches of Distinguished Kentuckians" we will treat the public to a similar line of biography.

MR. D. B. EDMISTON.

This gentleman heads the list as the nominee for county judge. Mr. Edmiston possesses one requisite of a judicial officer. Without the slightest difficulty, he can look on both sides of a question. He can go further than that. He can advocate both sides of a question. He can even beat that. He can decide for both sides of a question. Painfully, we must admit that Judge Bailey can't do that much. Mr. Edmiston proves all things and holds fast to that which is good (for himself). Brief as is this eulogium, it may appear to those who are not acquainted with him, if indeed there be such, rather bigbly eulogistic. But the facts on which we base it are as follows: In 1874, Mr. E. first appeared before the Lincoln county public as a candidate for circuit clerk on an independent-anti-democratic ticket. It was a good year in Lincoln for that sort of a ticket, and Mr. E. came under the string a winner. He immediately aligned himself with the regular organization of the democratic party, voted for its nominees, gave his counsel and money for them and at the end of a year went out of the office a wool-dyed democrat. Subsequently, he was nominated by the democrats for the Legislature, was elected as a democrat and served two years in that capacity. In 1893, he was appointed by President Cleveland to the office of storekeeper-gauger in the revenue service. He held on to this, not forgetting to draw his "per diem per day," as Senator Deboe hath it, until McKinley came in. At the advent of his administration, Mr. Edmiston began to think he had looked on one side of the question long enough. Though not at that time a judicial officer, the equitable qualities of his mind suggested that he take a peep at what McKinley had to say for the republicans. With him to think was to resolve, to resolve was to act, and he acted. The poet hath it, "Act well your part, there all the honor lies." Mr. Edmiston achieved the honor. He jumped right into the middle kettles of the republican party, and to his amazement, we will not say to his consternation, McKinley continued him in office as storekeeper-gauger, and there he is today. Now who will have the hardihood to say, in the light of this brief biography, that Mr. Edmiston does not know a good thing when he sees it, and who will say that he is not always on the look out for a good thing, and who will say that the county judgeship is not a good thing?

MR. JOHN N. MENEFEE.

We clear our throat with a most audible ahem before beginning this sketch. Mr. Menefee owns some of the sagacious qualities of the head of his ticket. He is at present mayor of the city of Stanford. If he lived in London, he would be called Lord Mayor. But what is an ordinary, every day Lord Mayor to sheriff of a wealthy county like Lincoln, and that's what Mr. Menefee wants to be. Mr. Menefee was for a long, long time a democrat. How long, dear readers, do you ask? We can not precisely say, but may safely answer, just as long as he was sheriff by the grace of the democratic party. And how long was he sheriff by democratic grace? Only three terms. Now we do not at all intimate that the democratic party grew tired of Mr. Menefee. It did not, nor can we believe that Mr. Menefee grew tired of the party. Some people whose minds are over given to suspicious and vague conjectures might suspect that Mr. Menefee thought that he would stand a better chance for the nomination for sheriff from the republicans than from the democrats, and for that reason simply changed his fellowship instead of his principles. But Mr. Menefee wants the sheriffalty, that's plain. He took it three times as a democrat and judging from this, he would be willing to take it again from the same source. But as that can't be now, he is willing to take it from the republicans. We commend this spirit of resignation. It exhibits great humility. When a man is willing to lay flat of his back and pray, "Good Lord, Good Devil! What-ever either one in mercy sends, that do I gratefully receive," then that man must be resigned to his fate. Adieu for the present!

MR. BEN B. KING.

Mr. King stands for representative. He is a consistent republican. There is no turn-coat or flop-over in him. Being an out and out republican, a middle-of-the-road republican, we are somewhat surprised that he should be willing to turn down his old party associates who desired to be nominated for judge and sheriff for those who had fought him in so many battles. Mr. King, we are assured, did not want this place; but he has a pocket-book, it is expected that he will untie the string and tell the other candidates to help themselves.

MR. JOHN HOLTZCLAW; MR. CY WALLS. These gentlemen are respectively for assessor and jailer. We know but little of them except that they are republicans. It is said that Mr. Walls once voted the democratic ticket, but that is so long ago that he can plead limitation to the felony.

If we have omitted anything in these sketches, hastily prepared and without full opportunity for investigation, we will on being advised give a fuller account hereafter. Meanwhile the INTERIOR JOURNAL proposes to be in this fight for the good of its party, and for the good of its county. We have the men on whom we can rely. The interest of every poor man, every rich man, every good man in Lincoln county is at stake. According to our best judgment that interest is advanced by the election of the democratic and the defeat of the republican ticket.

To pay a debt is a proper thing. It is an honest thing if done with a proper motive. To pay it only because the law can make you, or because you expect to gain some selfish end by it does not speak very highly for the integrity of the payor. The republicans have been engaged sometime in buying up dishonest democrats. We mean dishonest rascals who posed as democrats. For some of them they paid actual cash in hand. For some of them they paid offices, which is as good as cash. For some of them they executed promissory notes. These notes are paid or not, accordingly as the promisor may conclude his purchase is worth the contract price. The bosses promise nominations for good offices. In Louisville Boss Sapp didn't keep his promise, but gave the nominations to middle-of-the-road republicans. Booker Reed, who had left the democrats because they wouldn't any longer feed him, was promised the mayorship of Louisville. But when the time came, Boss Sapp concluded that Booker and his whippersnappers and his wind and his gas and his bad breath were not altogether worth the price. So he kicked Booker in his tender parts and started him in another mad race for his civil liberties. And now all the civil liberty following in Louisville sets up a dismal yell.

Out here in the country, the bosses propose, it is said, to keep their promises better. And really, it looks that way. They are offering to give the renegade democrats the best things in the house. Good juicy steak, broiled ham with red gravy, shortened corn-bread, coffee, sweetened with store sugar are all held out for the wanderer who "returneth from the wild," while the reliable old republican who dates his principles and his votes back to the days of Lincoln, who has borne the heat and burden of many a contest, is told that he can't have even a kid to make merry with his friends. The redeemed, the purchased democrats must have the kid and the fatted calf and the tending and the best robe in the house.

THE DANVILLE COURIER. R. O. Cunningham's new paper, is out at last. His salutatory has the right ring and if he lives up to it and keeps as good a run of advertising as he starts with he is bound to make both fame and fortune. The paper is a clean-looking, readable, seven column folio and will be published on Friday of each week.

CONGRESSMAN GEORGE G. GILBERT was one of the distinguished guests at the Hustonville fair and he received much attention. Our Congressman is very warm for Gov. Jas. B. McCreary for U. S. Senator and thinks he will win on the first ballot. "Gov. McCreary deserves anything he wants from the democrats," said the Congressman.

A CHICAGO judge has decided that a woman has not the right to go through her husband's pockets and can be punished if she does. Now let them take warning and quit the useless and foolish habit of feeling around in the old man's pockets for money, love letters, etc., etc.

BAILEY offers her desirable property at Turnersville for sale. See description of property in another column. THE L. & N. will sell round-trip tickets to the Deering Camp Meeting at Park Hill Aug. 8 to 18 at one fare. Tickets sold after 10th. WE were unable to attend court at Liberty yesterday, but will be mighty glad to wait on those who have business with us at the Liberty fair. Don't forget. CONFESSED—John Anderson, a Negro, confessed to breaking into J. J. McKinney's house at Mt. Salem, and stealing a pocket-book containing $7.50, was placed in jail to await circuit court for trial. GOT A CLAIM—A. D. Root, Jr., of this county, got a claim in the shuffle near El Reno, O. T., and is holding on to it with might and main. It is a valuable one and we are glad our countryman has such good prospects before him. THE fiscal court of Boyle awarded to the Dix River and Lancaster Turnpike Company $250 for a mill and a half of turnpike in that county. This is the road on which turnpike raids occurred a few weeks ago, and the last toll road in the county. BRYANT—Mrs. Sarah Bryant, sister of Messrs. W. E. Amon and J. T. O'Hair, died in the asylum at Lexington and was brought here and buried in Buffalo Cemetery Sunday afternoon. Services were held at the home of Mr. W. E. Amon by Rev. J. B. Crouch. THE residence of A. B. Williams, of Yosemite, was destroyed by fire Friday about 2 o'clock. The building was completely destroyed but the contents were mostly saved. Several nearby buildings were set on fire by sparks, but were extinguished before any serious damage was done. Cause of fire was a defective stove. THE hop at Walton's Opera House Friday evening was a most enjoyable affair. Lots of good dancers were on hand and they took advantage of every note of the sweet music made by Saxton and his skilled assistants. The night was cool and delightful and the hop will linger long as a pleasant memory. CHANGED TO CRAB ORCHARD.—The annual reunion of Lt. Severance Post, G. A. R., will be held at Crab Orchard instead of Woodstock, as heretofore advertised. August 29, 30 and 31 are the dates and a grand time is looked forward to. The Southern Military Band of Crab Orchard will furnish the music and there will be a number of prominent speakers. It is probable that a sham battle will be indulged in on the last day. LIBERTY FAIR.—A week from tomorrow the fair at Liberty will begin and many in this section are already getting things in readiness to go. A good show of stock is promised, while interesting trotting, pacing and running races are on the program of each day. Secretary G. R. Wilkinson asks us to state that purses for the races will be paid in full, discounts being made only on show ring premiums. Spend a few days at the Liberty fair if you want to have a royal good time and get fat. COOK.—Miss Mary Cook, whose death we mentioned last issue, was a splendid, christian young lady and her demise has caused deep sorrow wherever she was known. Possessing a beautiful disposition, she made friends of all with whom she came in contact and it is said indeed that one who was capable of doing good and making others happy has been cut down so early in life. Years ago Miss Cook united with the Christian church and had since been a consistent member. Knowing the deceased as we did we cheerfully testify to her beautiful character and are satisfied that if she ever did other than good deeds it was error of the head and not of the heart. A frequent visitor to our home, she was a general favorite with all, while the children loved her dearly. A child of God has returned to Him who loaned her for a short while to this cruel world and even those who loved her best could not wish her back, knowing that she is now in the land that is fairer than day, basking in the sunshine of the Lord of Lords. Miss Cook was the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simeon R. Cook, of Cook's Springs, and was buried in Buffalo Cemetery Friday afternoon after appropriate services at her late home by Elder J. C. Livingston.

THE Oxley Stave factory at Junction City has begun operations again. WE will fill your coal house during the month of August cheap for cash. J. H. Baughman & Co. W. W. WITHERS has the Furniture, Carpets, Matings, Wall Paper, Picture Frames and the low prices. LEG BROKEN.—Mr. John Z. Spoonmore had both bones of one of his legs broken near the ankle by a hog box falling on him a few days ago. ESTRAY SOW.—Red sow, with white face and weighing 250 pounds, is in the straw pen. Owner can get her by paying for keep and this notice. R. G. Jones, marshal. MONEY.—It is probable that you owe this office for your paper or for advertising or printing and we urge that you do not further postpone the payment of it. Now is the accepted time. DIED OF HYDROPHOBIA.—Mrs. Jar. Farmer, who was a daughter of Jeff Hale, died yesterday morning of hydrophobia, aged about 45. She was bitten by a puppy several months ago, but not until Thursday last did hydrophobia seize her, but since that time she suffered agonies until death came to her relief. THE republicans met here Saturday and put out the following portion of a ticket: D. B. Edmiston, for county judge; John N. Menefee, sheriff; B. B. King, representative; John Holzelaw, assessor; Cy Walls, jailer. County Attorney Helm, Supt. Singleton and Clerk Cooper were given no opposition. Nick Vanhook was nominated for magistrate in this district, Mart E. Bastin in the Waynesburg and Rev. Noakes in the Crab Orchard. A GOOD crowd is still at Crab Orchard Springs, where the guests are having a gay time and living on the fat of the land. A very enjoyable cake walk was indulged in Saturday evening and tomorrow evening another will be given, but this time the participants will be en masse. It is projected by Messrs. Wilbur Trimble, of Georgia, and Will James, of Crab Orchard. Other diversions for the guests are euchre, dancing, bowling parties, tennis, croquet, boating, bathing, billiards, hunting, fishing and driving. There are permanent guests there from several other States and visitors are coming this week from Tennessee and Western Kentucky. BRODHEAD.—An idea of the amount of business done at the little town of Brodhead, can be had when it is told that nine stores do a splendid business there. Four of these—Frith & Dunn, J. Thomas Cherry, R. S. Martin and Albright & Adams—carry almost any and everything you can think of and all of them sell goods cheap. In fact people come as far as Livingston to Brodhead to trade, realizing that they can pay railroad fare and then save money. Brodhead is a most delightful place to live, the people there reminding one of a big family, so well do they get along in business and otherwise. Of course there is some rivalry with the merchants but it doesn't extend far nor does it hurt friendship. Politically the town is also all right. Brodhead is the strongest democratic stronghold in Rockcastle and her democrats are of the "talk-out-in-meeting" kind. They outnumber their republican brothers nearly 16 to 1 in the town proper and many think that is the reason Brodhead is such a model place. The fair is the one topic now and the prospects are that the one to begin on the 21st inst will be the eclipsing one in the history of the Rockcastle County Fair Association. President J. W. Thomas Cherry and Secretary J. W. Tate are putting in every spare moment working for the success of the enterprise, and Rockcastle people in general are doing what they can to make this the best fair yet. A good show of stock is promised and the contests for speed will be unusually interesting. The republican primary to be pulled off on the 15th will be a "warm" affair. Soreness is already apparent and it is growing daily more so. To a man up a tree it looks like the democrats will have a monstrous good show to capture some, if not all of the county offices this fall. There are two marble firms in Brodhead and they do lots of work, and some of a very high grade. The Albright and Frith Hotels still do a good business and give the traveler the best the markets afford. It is conceded that you can get the best meal in Brodhead for a quarter than can be found anywhere. Frith's flouring mill is doing a good business now, running from 12 to 18 hours per day. There is some sickness in Brodhead and we are sorry to say there are 10 or a dozen cases of scarlet fever. Mrs. J. R. Cass is confined to her bed by a severe cold. A new building or so has been put up in Brodhead since our last visit, but the court-house has not been moved there from Mt. Vernon yet. Egbert Wallin is the efficient marshal of the little city and he and his deputy, W. A. Tyree, keep splendid order. The telephone pole business is a big thing there now and many tall trees are being converted into them. Some 50 or 75-footers were being hauled in Saturday afternoon for which the contractors were to receive from $3 to $7.

FOR SALE—Fresh Jersey cow, subject to register, cheap. J. S. Rice. * WITHERS sells good Furniture, Chairs, Mattresses, Springs, Rugs, Carpets, &c. JAILER DEBORD's house party now numbers 14. He has had a "house full" most of the year. A POSTOFFICE has been established at Celeste, Casey county, and Louis E. Cochran appointed postmaster. NEELEY STONE, the Henman, is grieved over the loss by death of his fine Newfoundland dog. FOR SALE OR RENT.—Residence on Upper Main, diagonally opposite the College. Inquire of E. C. Walton. * THE C. W. B. M. will meet at the lecture room of the Christian church at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon, when a full attendance is desired. TO FARMERS—I am still in the milling business and am better prepared than ever to serve the people. Fair dealing to all. Morris Fred, Proprietor Farmers Roller Mill. BELOVED CITIZEN GONE.—It is with great regret that we note the passing of one of our most beloved citizens and business men. He had been suffering all season and the end was not unexpected, though it was not thought he would leave us so soon. Not being able to find the recreation needed at home, he has gone to Lexington so that he will be on hand early for the big Horse Show, Fair and Carnival at that place August 12-17. He reports from that point that crowds are already coming in and says the prospects are good for the biggest fair ever seen in the South.

A Lexington dispatch says: News has reached here that Capt. J. A. Geary has sold his interests in the Sunny Brook oil district to the Standard Oil Company for $197,000. O. H. Waddle, of Somerset, was interested with Capt. Geary in the oil wells and they had given the company an option on the property.

Gov. Bradley hasn't forgotten his Lancaster ways and like the rest of the citizens of that good town seems to think that Garrard's capital will get everything good that's going. Listen what he says: The line will be built through Garrard county and to Lancaster, the county seat. The Southern railway will be forced to build the line if the lease for the Cincinnati Southern does not go through, and even if the lease should be made I think there is necessity for the extension.

Prosperity is slowly but surely penetrating the wilds of Kentucky. A newspaper in the mountain district devotes a "stick" or so to telling that it has just purchased a lead and rule cutter. We suppose after awhile the same paper will be able to displace the "shooting stick" for a Hempel quoin and key.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

A four-masted schooner launched at Bath, Me., was christened by scattering roses on the craft's bow. If roses take the place of champagne in naval ceremonies of this kind the authorities will doubtless stipulate that they be tea roses.—Lou. Times.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other ailments put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with such medicines, pronounced it incurable. Science, however, has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists. The Hall's Family Pills are the best.
